

IARGUS 2009

International Annual Russian Guitar Seminar and Festival

May 28 – 31, 2009

Schedule of events open to the public:

Thursday, May 28:

4:00 p.m. 2520D UCC*: Words of Welcome by Oleg Timofeyev, followed by a Public Lecture by Tatiana Gnatyuk: "The Roma of Ukraine." Admission is free and open to the public.

7:30 p.m. Old Brick Church: "19th-Century Masterpieces for two Russian Guitars," performed by The Czar's Guitars. This new program offers a preview of the forthcoming 7-CD box set of Russian Guitar Music. Admission is $12 for adults, $10 for students and seniors.

Friday, May 29:

7:00 p.m. Congregational Church: "Russian Gypsy Guitar," performed by Vadim Kolpakov and Fyodor Kondenko. Admission is $12 for adults, $10 for students and seniors.

Saturday, May 30:

5:15 p.m. Brucemore Mansion, Cedar Rapids: "Treasury of the Russian 7-String Guitar." Performed by The Czar's Guitars, Kolpakov & Kondenko, Psoi Korolenko. Admission is $40. Please, no cameras.

8:00 p.m. Cedar Valley Bible Church, Cedar Rapids: "Russian 7-string Guitar Virtuosos," Performed by Kolpakov, Kondenko, Timofeyev, The Czar's Guitars, Psoi Korolenko. Admission is $12 for adults, $10 for students and seniors.

Sunday, May 31:

3:00 p.m. University of Iowa Hillel House: "Gypsy Klezmer," Performed by Timofeyev Ensemble (with John Schneiderman on bass), Zingaresca, and guest artist Psoi Korolenko. Admission is $12 for adults, $10 for students and seniors.

8:00 p.m. Congregational Church: IARGUS 2009 GALA CONCERT, performed by all IARGUS 2008 performers and participants. Admission is $12 for adults, $10 for students and seniors.

*All locations are in Iowa City unless otherwise noted